Swimming Champion Takes a Plunge Yesterday Afternoon and Revels in the Feel of Familiar Waters-Talks of the Olympics

Yesterday must have been a gratify ing day throughout for Duke Kahan moku, but its a safe bet that not the least enjoyable event on the program was the swim which the champion had at Waikiki late in the afternoon, Duke was grinning itte a sea, of now when he slid into the velvety waters that he slid into the velvety waters that lap the Moana beach, and it wick out with the long: graceful strokes that carried the Hawaiian to victory in table geest swimming races of the world. "Gee, but this feels good," said the big fellow. "Tank swimming is all and to the good in the light in its way, and I had to the good.

plunges in the surf at Atlantic City, but there's nothing like Walkis in the whole world. I've been thinking of this for months and months. Ever since I went away I guess."

Duke is full of interesting gossip of sport in general and swimming in particular, and it will be many days before his friends have pumped him dry for news of the Olympic gamer.

One question which was fired at him almost as soon as he landed from the Wilhelmina vesterday was how the American relay team came to be beater. at Stockholm by the Australians. Duke said that the men who took the second and third relays for the American team lost considerable distance, and that the team as a whole couldn't stan off the Antipudean speeders. Perry McGillivray took the first 200 meters of the race and gained a trifle on his man. Then Kenneth Hussagh and Harry Hebner each lost water on their laps, so that when Duke started on the final stretch he was more than 10 yards to the bad. He made up about half of this on Hardwick, but could not catch the speedy Australian.

CHALLENGE TO

Manager Wisdom of "Y" Alleys Hears from Oakland Association Regarding Inter-City Matches—Local Alleys Will Rattle with Falling Wood Soon

The Oakland Y. M. C. A. has taken up the challenge of the local association for a bowling match, and it is ex-pected that San Francisco will get into line and accept by the next mail. this is good news to the local rollers. who believe that they can hold their own with the crack alleymen of the Coast, and who have been unxious for ome time to get a chance at the men om across the water.

The plan is to play three matches of five games each for five-man teams against Oakland, the results of each much's play to be exchanged by cable. The same arrangement will be made with the San Francisco "Y" should it come into line.

Bowling interest is greater than ever before locally, and all the rollers are keen for the opening of the winter season, about the middle of the present month. That the sport is going to be taken seriously this season was evidenced by the fact that no less than thirty-five men turned out for the organization meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Bowling Association night before

At this meeting C. H. Atherton was elected president of the association, and Clarence E. White secretary and treasurer. Plans were at once made for the organization of the league, in which six teams will be represented. The men seem to be taking more interest in the local league than in the proposed interisland series, and nothing will be done about the latter until the pins have been falling for a while on the home drives. A committee consisting of one delegate from each of the bowling clubs was appointed, and this body will meet next Monday noon in the "Y" cafe, to talk over the rules and regulations that are to govern the league race. The following men will act on the committee: C. E. White, Healanis; A. T. Wisdom, Myrtles; H. V. Gear or George Dyson, Honolulus; R. B. Rietow, Lactis; W. O.
